TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be we'l to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish."

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world," This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY,

has, during the past year, carned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt E. & T FAIRBANKS & CO. time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miler coupler and p'atform, and the Westingon e air brake. I N 18 / 1

It is positively the only line running Pulimin Palice Drawing-Boom Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashvale to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or quipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chi-

Referred to the Judiciary the world for their inhumanity to the Committee. aborigines of America, the history of Spanish dominion in this hemisphere From the Governor, transmitting a comhas been one tissue of barbarity, rapine | munication in reference to the centenand tyranny. Spanish Viceroys and Governors have followed in the footsteps which Pizarro and Cortez planted, and torrents of blood have flowed whereever these scourges of the human race appeared. From the everglades of Florida to the limits of their conquest erect ed by the ice bound regions of Patagonia, the haughtiness of the Spanish masters and the rapacity of Spanish robbers have been felt while Spain exercised dominion. In the annals of her government in America there is nothing to relieve the dreary sameness of oppression and wrong, and even in those countries which have thrown off her burden, the Spanish nature is seen and felt in the scenes of revolutionary strife, which succeed each other with the rapidity of a drama.

From the time that Spanish insolence and aggression set afloat Drake and Raleigh to avenge their butchered our delegation in Congress to vote for a countrymen, the attitude of Spain towards foreign nations in their connection with her American settlements has sacre. Spanish policy has ever been to to append' an explanatory note to the isolate her colonies from the commerce of the world, and infranctions of her wishes have usually been visited with the severest punishments. Successively Spain has seen her American colonies raise the flag of independence, and one after another she has been driven to admit into the sisterhood of nations. Two only remain; one of these, from the splendid soil, climate and position, denominated the Queen of the Antilles. The exactions of Roman proconsuls, and the cruelty of Turkish pachas, may be challenged in vain for a parallel to Spanish misgovernment in the ever faithful isle. For centuries the wealth of teeming Cuba has been poured into the lap of Spain, supplying, indeed, a large portion of the public and private revenues of the mother country; and to-day the cruelest warfare that ever disgraced mankind is waged against the better class of Spain's subjects in the Island. Human slavery is there tolerated—the only Christian peeple upon whom this stain

To the United States, as the chiefest sufferer, belongs the duty of arresting Spanish barbarity in its war on human | honor of the State and to the truth of nature. Circumstances have given us history. such an opportunity as can never again occur. It is well to avoid war generally, but under some conditions the hy- the Treasurer for all the funds necesperbole of Wordsworth becomes simple truth: "Carnage is God's daughter" when her mission is to put a period to a long series of crimes, and which cannot be done without her intervention. A guarantee against future Spanish aggression can only be secured by a better government than Spain ever had-honorable in its dealings with other nations, and | the Centennial celebration to be held in strong enough to enforce its authorityor by our government extending a protectorate over Cuba. If it be possible that Castelar can continue at the head of the Spanish Ministry, then we have just cause for congratulation; but the establishment of this fact which if he is powerless, then we must take | could be done was not confined to Charour remedy into our own hands. Resolutions Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N.

WHEREAS. THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens.

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or incompany to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad ent or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide, on Sixth Street, twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty-five feet wide, on McRae Street twenty-feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point,

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873,

Saturday Night Sketches.

So clear and beautiful to-night, that we hardly care to see anything but the bright moon queen in her luminous dome, before whose light the stars hide their twinkling forms. The streets seem to shine clean and white, and the shadows lie so dark, marking the forms of buildings and even posts so plainly that we are thankful no sickly gas lamps mar the scene. Moon-gazing is neither profitable or interesting, for how can a quill-driver on a small paper in Wilmington write anything now upon the oft-repeated tale of the fickle moon? We can only say we enjoy it to-night with a full heart, and are not sorry to note the quiet streets at an early hour. At eight o'clock every cart has disappeared from the accustomed block, and but a solitary wagon load of Autumn vegetables can be found.

Many of the stores are flaunting the sign "SELLING OFF AT COST FOR CASH" in their windows, and their counters are well lined with buyers. It is sad at such a time, when you see dealers selling for eash, that you have not a full supply of that needful article in order to secure bargains. The good old lady of long ago discovered that "just as eggs got scarce and high, her hens always stopped laying," and this is exactly the case now. Goods are offered at cost for cash, just at the time when we haven't any cash to buy with! Shocking, shocking!

There are many affected by the panic. Wandering into a store, we discover a well known young gentleman seated near a box; on which is lying a large kandsome cigar. Passing the usual compliments of the evening, by a sleight of hand worthy of old Wyman himself, we obtain possession of the solitary treasure. Tears spring into the young man's eye, and he exclaims, "Oh, dear, you have taken my Sunday cigar." We are sorry for our friend, and return his carefully preserved Sabbath luxury, with the thought that there are many who indulge in but one fifteen cent cigar a week. Well, we must all curtail our luxuries during the hard times, and be thankful if we can obtain the necessities of life. Speaking of necessities, we notice that one store in the city sold this evening, between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock, six dozen bottles of whiskey! is filled with wounded. Seventeen Seventy-two bottles of whiskey sold at houses, including the principal hotels, retail in one evening, and still we are not happy. It is odd that people wear old clothes and "shocking bad hats" in the hard times, but will have whiskey. Here is another good chance for the temperance lecturers. Up the river, with missing spars and broken ropes, comes a brig safe at last already, with the recklessness of their montain rescued 87 of her passengers minds. Intent upon having a spree ashore, they gaze at the city, so bril-

be read in the morning's papers, and the laughing throng from the Opera House, where beauty and buffoonery have striven for the mastery as we were wandering about the streets, wend their way homeward. The actors' labor is ended for the time being, and the last light has gone from the building, leaving it in strange contrast to the scene a few music; but the Sabbath is rapidly ap-the cra of another Sabbath—the first of the Christian year. The belated pedestrian hastens homeward, and the make the city's life. The Saturday night

The Rockinham Spirit says: A colored child, whose name and age we could not ascertain, was burnt to death, a few days ago, some three miles below this place, by its clothes taking fire from a burning brush heap in the field, in which it was attempting to parch some corn, while left alone by its father. The screams of the child soon brought the agonized father to its assistance, but unfortunately he arrived too late to do any good. The little sufferer lingered until 2 o'clock next morning, when death kindly came to its relief.

sld Nov 7 The Raleigh News says: Thursday evening, soon after the reception of the Cubar war telegams, the Daily News issued an extra which was circulated by hundreds to our patrons in the city .--The "Extras" created considerable excitement and commotion on the streets, and our carriers were at several points blocked in by the anxious crowd eager to obtain a copy. At the corner of Martin and Fayetteville streets, a large crowd surrounded one of the carriers who issued his war bulletins as fast as his capacity would admit of. The crowd attracted the attention of a number of Federal Court witnesses from Wake, Chatham and Johnston counties, who naturally asked "what them papers were about?" "Announcing a war with Spain," answered a gentleman. Just at this moment Ramsay, the Great International Temperance Apostle, &c., had out his drums and fifes with banners flying, announcing Hartley's lecture at Tucker Half. The object of the "drumming" was misconstrued by the witnesses, and a general stampede for their homes ensued. Yesterday reports came from nearly every township in the county that they were drafting soldiers for Cuba in Raleigh, the war had commenced, and troops were moving. Steamer North State, Green, Fayette-An interesting revival has been in progress in the Methodist church at
